School Mission and Goals

We, the A.F. Garcia School Community, will ensure that all students will be empowered to face life's challenges. This will be accomplished in a culture that emphasizes social responsibility and high levels of academic achievement. We will strive for 75% of all students achieving the label of Meets or Exceeds on the annual Arizona Instrument of Measuring Standards (AIMS) and Tera Nova. We will strive toward 75% of our students passing formative assessments associated with AIMS and Tera Nova with

On campus Incidents: 47

As of this writing, we have had four incidents involving police. One involved a student leaving campus with out permission. We no longer have a School Resource Officer (SRO) due to loss of funding. His services were very valuable not only to the school but also to the community in the areas of education, support and public relations. The Wake Up Club is also a wonderful support to our students.
