School Mission and Goals

Lomas provides a safe learning environment for students, staff and community members. We support students in making successful choices academically, socially and emotionally. Lomas staff helps every student instill a lifelong love of learning, to be independent thinkers and learn to develop good decision-making skills through Character Education. Kyrene seeks to inspire and engage our diverse community of students, staff, families and citizens to ensure continuous academic achievement and pers

We implemented a School-wide Discipline program in our school three years ago. Students practice being safe, being respectful and being responsible in all areas of the school. The 3 B's are tied to our Character Education program. Students are all taught the rules in every area of our school by their teachers and practiced. All students belong to every teacher and support staff person on campus. Students know that if caught not following any school rules, their teacher and their parent will
