School Mission and Goals

As a member of one of America's outstanding school districts, our primary mission is to provide opportunities for our students to learn as they prepare for life.
We envision a positive future for our children and therefore strive to:
- create, in each student, a person of strong ethical character with a desire for life-long learning
- create a safe environment where each child is secure with the knowledge that their emotional, physical, and academic welfare is the focus of each e

On campus Incidents: 0

O'Connor staff work in a team-oriented fashion to recognize student emotional and behavioral issues and prevent serious incidents. Through coordinated, collaborative efforts, we educate the whole child. It is this combination of committed dedicated staff, involved supportive parents, and motivated engaged students that leads to positive experiences and relationships. Together, we spark intellectual development, community, and lifelong learning. More important, together we make an incredible diff
