School Mission and Goals

Kyrene School District seeks to inspire and engage our diverse community of students, staff, families and citizens to ensure continuous achievement and personal growth for every student. Located in the Ahwatukee Foothills of Phoenix, AZ, Sierra opened in August of 1992 and serves approximately 715 students. Our mission is to foster and facilitate an environment where every child is respected and valued, quality and excellence are pursued, and learning is a lifelong journey.

Our staff frequently reviews our emergency plan detailing steps to be taken in the event of an emergency. Sierra also utilizes the Character Counts program to assist students in learning the basic principles of character development and appropriate behavior. Our site council supports character education efforts by allocating tax credit dollars to an outside agency to provide classroom presentations, small group discussions, assemblies and teacher development.
